Health & Disability Advocates: Veterans Programs

In 2008, recognizing the Illinois National Guard was experiencing its largest deployment since WWII, HDA researched areas of greatest need for future Veterans in Illinois. Today, we serve as a trusted ally to state and federal military institutions, community providers and funders, advising on how to better support active and former Service Members and their families throughout the entire cycle of deployment and reintegration.

Described as “best practices” by the Heartland Social Impact Research Center, our programs earned the National Guard’s Seven Seals Award and garnered recognition by Congress and numerous other accolades. This recognition is based on initiatives such as:

- Personalized, privileged and confidential assistance to Illinois Veterans, Military Service-Members, National Guard and Reservists, survivors and their families

Illinois Warrior to Warrior: a volunteer Veteran peer-based support program in partnership with the Illinois National Guard that helps bridge the gaps between military service and civilian life: ilwarriortowarrior.org.

- Illinois Connections for Families of the Fallen: connecting families with peer support, community, and resources in partnership with Army Survivor Outreach Services: www.ilcff.org

- Assistance to military and Veteran agencies in connecting to Illinois public benefits and community resources, training agency staff to navigate state benefits, and offering Military 101 training and workshops for mental health professionals

- Consultations with civilian social service agencies access to increase capacity to serve and conduct outreach to military and Veteran populations and foster military-friendly communities

- Outreach and education events to combat and improve service to survivors of Military Sexual Trauma

Most importantly, HDA listens to our Veterans, as well as the individuals and agencies who support them, in order to effectively advocate for current and former Service Members at both local and national levels.

Healthcare Reform

Illinois has various state medical programs for people with disabilities, women and families. They limit eligibility by age, health status, income, immigration status and asset levels. They also vary in cost-sharing, coverage limits and access to providers.

Service Members (SMs) and their families, including spouses, children and parents, may be eligible for state medical coverage if they meet eligibility requirements. They may choose to opt for military medical coverage or state medical coverage; in some instances, they may be able to receive both.

For example, in the National Guard/Reserve (NGR), SMs can keep free military medical coverage for 180 days post deployment. Afterwards, they can continue military medical coverage (TRICARE Reserve Select) at higher cost-sharing or apply for other available state medical coverage if eligible. Or, family members may want to choose state coverage at any time.

To apply for state healthcare programs visit abe.illinois.gov/abe/access/ or call (866) ALL KIDS / (800) 843-6154 (DHS Help Line). Navigating programs and eligibility requirements can be confusing. To get individual, in-person assistance to find the right kind of health coverage for you, go to https://getcoveredillinois.gov/get-help/ or call (866) 311-1119.

Tricare

Tricare: Health insurance for active duty military, retirees, National Guard, reservists and their families or survivors. Coverage allows access to civilian healthcare providers, dental and pharmacy services. There are over ten different types of TRICARE programs with different rules for premiums, cost sharing, enrollment, etc.

For example, one type of TRICARE coverage is TRICARE Prime, a Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) that provides a list of participating providers in a given area. For this program, active duty families do not pay an enrollment fee or co-payments for in-network services. For information about specific programs, visit www.tricare.mil or call 877-TRICARE or (877) 874-2273.
TRICARE Pharmacy: Worldwide, prescriptions may be filled using any of the following options:

Military Treatment Facility (MTF) Pharmacy: No out-of-pocket costs. Available medications include, at a minimum, those on the Basic Core Formulary—up to a 90-day supply. Visit www.tricare.mil/mtf.aspx for the location nearest you.

TRICARE Pharmacy Home Delivery: Minimal out-of-pocket cost, and up to a 90-day supply may be delivered to your home. www.express-scripts.com/TRICARE/.

TRICARE Retail Network Pharmacies provide an option when you need a prescription right away but don’t have access to a MTF pharmacy. To find a location near you, visit tinyurl.com/tcretailpharm.

Medicaid Coverage for Kids, Families, and Adults

Medicaid is administrated by both the U.S. and state governments and provides health insurance to individuals, and families (both civilian and military) with low-income and resources or those with disabilities. There are several Medicaid programs in Illinois. Below are the ones most commonly used by individuals and families:

ACA Adults: A Medicaid program available under new healthcare reform. Services include emergency visits, prescription drugs, dental care, general physician services, sub-acute alcoholism and substance use disorder services and mental health services.

To be eligible, you need to be 19-64 years of age; be a legal immigrant for at least 5 years or be a U.S. citizen; meet income limits (for 2014, limits are $1,342 of income per month for an individual or $1,809 for a couple); and have a Social Security Number or have applied for one.

Family Care: Healthcare coverage for parents with children under age 18. Income limits vary based on family size. For a family of three, the monthly income limit is $2,743 in 2014. There are no monthly premiums. Families pay co-pays between $2.00 and $3.90 for doctor visits, dental care, specialty medical services and prescription drugs. SMs and/or their spouses may be eligible for Family Care instead of, or in addition to, VA Health Benefits or TRICARE. Visit familycareillinois.com or call (866) 255-5437 or (866) ALL-KIDS.

All Kids: Provides coverage for uninsured children living in a family home. Income limits vary by family size. Cost sharing varies based upon household income. Visit http://www.allkids.com/income.html to learn more about eligibility requirements. Children of SMs may be eligible for All Kids in lieu of, or in addition to, coverage under TRICARE. For more information, call (866) 255-5437 or (866) ALL-KIDS.

Emergency Medical Care Programs

Typically, a Veteran must go to a VA facility or provider to have VA cover the cost of emergency care. However, care at non-VA facilities is reimbursable under certain conditions:

- No other way to pay – You have no other form of health insurance and you are not covered under Medicare, Medicaid, a state program, or any other VA programs. If another health insurance provider pays any part of a bill, VA cannot reimburse you.
- Must be an emergency – You received care in a hospital emergency department or similar emergency care facility.
- Must be enrolled in the VA healthcare system and have received care by a VA healthcare provider within the last 24 months, meaning that you received some sort of medical services (including preventative care) like physicals, screenings and prescription drugs.
• You are financially liable to the provider and have no other recourse against a third party that will pay any part of the bill.

• Department of Veterans Affairs or other Federal facilities were not feasibly available at the time of emergency.

Once the Veteran is stable, or no longer in an emergency, he/she needs to transfer to a VA facility.

If ineligible for VA reimbursement, see if Medicaid is an option. Vets can enroll in Medicaid after emergency treatment and have coverage apply retroactively up to 90 days from the date of application.

Residents pay a monthly fee assessed on an individual’s income (not assets) and is currently a maximum fee of $1,429 per month. An ability-to-pay-plan exists with a maximum maintenance fee, and no Veteran will be turned away because of ability to pay. Some costs of care are not covered.

In-Home Care

In-Home Care (IHC): May be a cheaper alternative to institutional care that also allows one to maintain his or her independence. Most notably, some programs allow not a professional but a friend, family member, or spouse to provide assistance and, in that case, that person would receive compensation. This is great for the loved ones in a Veteran’s life because they are paid for what they are already doing.

Multiple federal, state and military programs exist to support IHC. In most cases, participation in one program affects a Veteran’s eligibility with other programs, so it is important to know what program best fits a Veteran’s needs.

TIP
A disability causing a Veteran to require IHC can include physical or mental impairments.
VA Programs and Benefits for IHC

For more information about these and other IHC programs, contact your local VA medical facility and speak with a Caregiver Support Coordinator, visit caregiver.va.gov or dial toll-free (877) 222-VETS (8387).

Skilled Home Healthcare Services: Available for Veterans who are homebound, isolated, or whose caregiver is experiencing burden. The VA coordinates with a community-based home healthcare agency to provide short-term care, including skilled services, assistance with activities of daily living, or case management.

Homemaker/Home Health Aide Services (H/HHA): Helps caregivers take care of Veterans. Assistance is minimal and only applicable if caregiver needs help doing something specific, such as bathing the Veteran.

Eligibility:
- Enrolled in VA healthcare system and VA determines a Veteran has significant physical or medical limitations and needs assistance to remain in their home, has severe cognitive impairment, or requires H/HHA as adjunct care to community hospice services.

VA Family Caregivers Program: If a post 9-11 Veteran requires assistance with activities of daily living (ADLs), or supervision or protection based on other impairment or injury, then the Veteran can elect an individual, known as a Primary Family Caregiver (PFCG), to receive a monthly stipend to help the Veteran with ADLs. Visit caregiver.va.gov or call (855) 260-3274.

Eligibility:
- Incurred or aggravated serious injury (including TBI, psychological trauma, or other mental disorder) in active duty on or after September 11, 2001; or
- Require assistance or supervision for 6 months; and
- Have a discharge other than dishonorable.

Services:
- Veteran elects a spouse, child, parent, stepfamily member, or other family member, and this person then receives a stipend based upon the care provided to the Veteran.
- The Veteran can elect someone other than the above, but that person then must reside with the Veteran full-time in order to be an eligible PFCG.

This program does not have income eligibility limits. A Post 9-11 Veteran should first apply for the Caregivers Program because, when compared to the other long-term care programs, it has the broadest eligibility requirements. If a Veteran does not have a live-in PFCG, then use HSP.
Aid and Attendance (A&A): Benefit paid in addition to monthly pension to assist wartime Veterans and surviving spouses who have in-home care or who live in assisted living centers or nursing homes. To be eligible, one of the following conditions must be met:

- You require the aid of another person in order to perform activities of daily living or protect yourself
- Your disability requires that you remain in bed apart from any prescribed course of convalescence or treatment
- You are a patient in a nursing home due to mental or physical incapacity
- Your eyesight is limited to a corrected 5/200 visual acuity or less in both eyes; or concentric contraction of the visual field to 5 degrees or less.

Additional Eligibility Requirements:

- Veteran must have served 90 days of active military duty, at least one day of which was during wartime and have been discharged under conditions other than dishonorable;
- Family income below a yearly limit (2014):
  - $21,107 for a Veteran without dependents
  - $25,022 for a Veteran with one dependent, plus $2,161 for each additional dependant
- Reduced income limits for surviving spouses exist in each category.

If a Veteran’s spouse’s medical expenses completely deplete their combined monthly income, then the Veteran can file as a Veteran with a sick spouse.

Housebound: An enhanced or special monthly cash benefit to pay for an assistant that is provided in addition to basic pension.

A Veteran cannot receive both A&A and Housebound benefits at the same time, nor can either program be used with other in-home care programs.

A Veteran may be eligible for Housebound benefits when: the Veteran has a single permanent disability evaluated as 100% disabling AND, due to such disability, he/she is permanently and substantially confined to his/her immediate premises, OR, the Veteran has a single permanent disability evaluated as 100% disabling AND, another disability, or disabilities, evaluated as 60% or more disabling.

Housebound is based upon a higher income limit, so a claimant ineligible for the basic pension due to excessive income may still be eligible for Housebound.

Non-Post-9/11 Veterans with low income and resources with 100% disability rating should pursue A&A or Housebound.

Otherwise, their only recourse would be to use HSP, which most likely, in attempt to manage costs, would seek institutional placement rather than long-term care.

You cannot be enrolled in HSP with other programs.

Eligibility:

• Have a disability that meets the standard for nursing home admission;

• Respite Services: Temporary care for adults and children with disabilities aimed at relieving stress to families.
• Devices or equipment either purchased or rented to increase an individual’s capacity to perform ADLs.

Consider the VA family Caregivers Program if your family member or caregiver lives with you. If not, use HSP if the Veteran does not qualify for other long term care programs, e.g. not post 9-11, dishonorable discharge, or not rated 100% disabled.

Anixter Center: Helps people with disabilities and related challenges by providing residential, educational, employment, socialization, and health services. Visit anixter.org.

2. Device Loans allows potential AT users to “try-out” devices prior to purchase, have access to a backup system when their device is in for repairs, and/or have access to a device while waiting for their device to be delivered. There are over 1,000 devices in the loan inventory.

Mental Health
Traumatic Brain Injury and Posttraumatic Stress Disorder

Traumatic brain injury (TBI) and Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) are the signature injuries of current conflicts.

TBI occurs when an external force injures the brain. Commonly, blast waves cause TBI. Symptoms of TBI can be headaches, ringing in the ears and dizziness, which can range in severity from mild to extreme, depending on the extent of the brain damage.

PTSD occurs after experiencing a traumatic event. After that event, symptoms can start soon, or years later; and may come and go over years. Symptoms of PTSD include reliving the event, avoiding places or things that remind you of the event, feeling emotionally numb and hyper arousal. If the symptoms last for 4 weeks or more, cause distress, or interfere with work/home life, you may have PTSD.

Both TBI and PTSD share similar symptoms of memory problems, trouble sleeping and irritability or frustration.

Rush Road Home Program: Offers confidential support, counseling, and health services to Veterans who have experienced PTSD or TBI. Call (312) 942-8387 or email team@roadhomeprogram.org for more information.

Illinois Warriors Assistance Program (IWAP): Provides confidential PTSD and TBI assistance to Veterans and active duty SMs who served at least 180 days. IWAP is primarily for Veterans who cannot get services through insurance or the VA, but it does allow exceptions. Visit illinoiswarrior.comanixter.org or call (866) 554-4927.

Every VAMC has a mental health provider to help Veterans with TBI or PTSD.

Potter Center for Development: Offers counseling and psychotherapy for depression and anxiety disorders (such as PTSD). Offices located in the Chicago Loop, Oak Park and Skokie. Call (312) 917-1242 or (847) 840-0985.

Depression

Depression is a common reaction to life-stressors. It causes trouble in enjoying normal daily activities; sufferers feel like life isn’t worth it anymore. It is not something that can be simply “snapped out of.” Like medical illnesses, it takes time to be relieved of depression. People with depression often find counseling, medications, or other treatments beneficial.

Symptoms of Depression:

- Prolonged sadness or unexplained crying spells
- Irritability, anger, worry, agitation, or anxiety
- Loss of energy, persistent lethargy
- Feelings of guilt, worthlessness, or hopelessness
- Inability to concentrate, indecisiveness
- Inability to take pleasure in former interests, social withdrawal
- Recurring thoughts of death or suicide
- Headaches or other physical pain
- Unhealthy behaviors (misusing drugs, alcohol, food, sex, or other behaviors like gambling or spending too much money)
Suicide

Know the signs. Watch for these key suicide warning signs and provide support to anyone exhibiting them:

• Talking about wanting to hurt or kill oneself
• Trying to get pills, firearms, or other ways to harm oneself
• Hopelessness, feeling trapped like there is no way out
• Rage, uncontrolled anger, seeking revenge
• Acting in a reckless or risky way
• Abusing drugs or alcohol
• Withdrawing from friends or family
• Sleeping too much or too little
• Giving away possessions

Beware: Most people who die by suicide have communicated some intent. Most suicidal ideas are associated with treatable disorders. The intent to die can override any rational thinking.

If you think someone may be suicidal, be direct and ask them about it.

Suicide Prevention Lifeline: Provides support 24 hours a day, 7 days a week even if the Veteran is not registered with the VA or VA healthcare. Go to veteranscrisisline.net for an online confidential chat or call (800) 273-TALK (8255) and press “1” to talk to someone NOW. Veterans can also send a text message to 838255.

Off the Base: A blog that provides resources to military personnel and families, including suicide prevention. Use the search feature on the website, offthebase.wordpress.com, to find information.

Other websites: suicideoutreach.org and medalofhonorsspeakout.org.

Grief and Loss

Illinois Connections for Families of the Fallen (ICFF): Is a partnership, between Army Survivor Outreach Services (SOS) and HDA, which coordinates with more than 25 agencies to provide assistance to families of the fallen, including families of suicide. ICFF facilitates support groups, resources and statewide events for all family members. For more information, email ICFF@hdadvocates.org or call (312) 265-9109. You can also connect on facebook.com/ILCFF.

Sexual Assault & Family Violence
Military Sexual Trauma

Military sexual trauma (MST) refers to sexual assault or harassment that is related to military service. MST affects more men than women annually. In 2013-2014, it is estimated that 14,000 men and 12,000 women were survivors of MST. You can also receive assistance and support from Sexual Assault Response Coordinators (SARCs) who are available on all military bases. SARCS can help facilitate medical treatment, counseling, or filing reports.

Even if you are not eligible for other VA care, you can still visit any VA or VetCenter to receive free, confidential care for MST. Every VAMC has an MST coordinator.

There is no time limit for reporting MST, even after active duty has ended, or for receiving MST services.

Two Different Ways to Report Military Sexual Trauma:

- Unrestricted Reporting initiates an official command or criminal investigation of an incident, and is made to chain of command, or law enforcement.
- Restricted Reporting allows an incident to be reported to a specific individual such as a SARC, healthcare provider, or a counselor, but without initiating an investigation or notifying victim’s or offender’s command.

If someone chooses to disclose an experience of MST, be empathetic and respectful of the survivors experience. Let the survivor guide the story rather than your own curiosity. When appropriate refer survivor to a Military Victim Advocate or other resource.

What is a Military Victim Advocate?

Military Victim Advocates (MVAs) provide direct assistance to victims. They listen to victims’ needs and then connect them with appropriate resources, including medical care, mental healthcare, legal advice and spiritual support. MVAs work with victims to help them make informed choices and then support them every step of the way.

What does the MVA do for the victim?

- Reports directly to the Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC)
- Available to respond 24 hours a day, 7 days a week
- Provides ongoing nonclinical support
- Facilitates care for the victim
- Provides information on options and resources
- Assists victim with accessing resources
- Accompanies victim to appointments, if desired
- Provides monthly case status updates to the victim

Illinois National Guard SARC: (217) 299-8922 or (217) 299-9407.

Navy Region Midwest SAPR Victim Advocate: (847) 688-3603.

Air Force SARC (Illinois): (618) 256-7272
Family Violence

Domestic Abuse vs. Domestic Violence

Domestic abuse (DA) is domestic violence or a pattern of behavior resulting in emotional/psychological abuse, economic control, and/or interference with personal liberty.

Domestic violence (DV) is an offense under the United States Code, the Uniform Code of Military Justice, or state law that involves force or violence against a person, or a violation of an order of protection. This also includes willful deprivation, stalking and neglect and exploitation of an adult with a disability.

For both abuse and violence, the violence must be directed at a current or former spouse, a person with whom the abuser shares a child, or a current or former intimate partner with whom the abuser shares or has shared a home.

Anyone who is a victim of DA or DV can seek assistance from a domestic abuse victim advocate (“DAVA”) at the Family Advocacy Program (FAP) on their installation. DAVAs can assist with Military Protective Orders, as well as help with other services and resources.

Military Protective Orders

Only unit commanders can issue Military Protective Orders (MPOs) to an abusive active duty Service Member. To qualify, you must be in a relationship with the abuser and be a spouse/ex-spouse, current or former intimate partner, or have a child in common.

- Civilian abusers may only be subject to a civil protection order, NOT an MPO. However, a commanding officer may order a civilian abuser to stay away from the installation.
- There is no trial or hearing, unlike civilian court, so you will not have to appear in front of a judge, testify in front of, or even be in the same room as, the abuser.
- If you are not granted an MPO, you might still be eligible for a civil protection order.

How do I Get a Military Protective Order?

- Contact the Family Advocacy Program on your installation.
  OR
- Contact the abusers leadership directly (such as 1st Sergeant).
  OR
- Contact a local domestic violence program found on pages 37-40.

Get the MPO in writing and always have it with you.

- An MPO is only enforceable while the abuser is attached to the issuing command unit.
- Ask the new commander to issue a new MPO when relocating to a new base or unit.

Civil Orders of Protection

Any order of protection (OP) is a court order that restricts a person who abused a family or household member. An OP may order an abuser to leave your home, to stay away from you and your work, to turn weapons over to law enforcement, or to prohibit the abuser from taking children.

Minor children/dependent adults in the care of the petitioner and other members of your household can also be protected by the OP.

Contact a domestic violence program on pages 39-40 for help getting an OP.

You must ASK THE JUDGE to specifically write in the OP that the abuser cannot buy nor have a gun, to give any guns to the police, or require the police to go to the abuser’s house and get the guns while the OP is in effect. Call the police if the abuser disregards a part of the OP because that is another crime, violation of an OP.

Save evidence, such as damaged clothing or property and take photographs of injuries or damages.

It is ok to leave work because of domestic violence. Be sure to provide your employer with written notice of the reason for leaving and provide the unemployment office with evidence of violence. Contact Illinois Department of Employment Security at (800) 244-5631 for more information.
Income Supports
Veteran Cash Benefits

State programs may be used in combination with traditional Veteran’s programs. A Veteran may apply in person, or online at tinyurl.com/a6tktrq, or call (800) 827-1000 for assistance.

Service Connected Disability Compensation: VA can pay Veterans monthly compensation if they are at least 10% disabled because of their military service.

- Must have a service connected disability,
- Must have a medical discharge or a discharge of Other Than Conditions (OTC) or higher, and
- Must have a disability that meets VA standards.

VA Pension: Wartime Veterans can receive a monthly pension if they have limited income and they are permanently and totally disabled or at least 65 years old.

- Must have been discharged from service under other than dishonorable conditions, and
- Served 90 days or more of active duty with at least 1 day during a period of war time, and
- Have countable family income below a yearly limit. The 2013 limit for single without dependents was $12,256.

- Earnings WILL affect VA Pension benefit award.
- There is no time limit to apply for benefits.
- Vets may prefer to use a VSO (see Healthcare & Disability: Veterans Affairs Healthcare System) in order to file a disability claim in the most appropriate and timely manner rather than filing on one’s own.

Adult SSDI and SSI

Social Security Disability (SSDI) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI): Provide income to disabled persons who meet the Social Security definition of disability and income requirements. Both use the same definition of disability, but the amount of income paid is different: SSDI is based upon what a person paid in payroll taxes while working and SSI is based upon a fixed amount if a person has low-income and lacks a strong work history.

- SSDI: Averages $1,129 monthly but is different for everyone since it’s based upon past earnings.
- SSI: Maximum amount is $733 in 2015. People who receive SSI generally qualify for Medicaid. Some people who have very low SSDI checks (under $733) may receive both SSDI and SSI.
- Eligibility: Unable to earn at least $1,090 per month in 2015 due to a severe disability that has lasted or is expected to last for at least 12 months or could cause death.
- Start initial application in person, or online at ssa.gov, or by phone at (800) 772-1213.

TIP: Appeal denials within 60 days online or by phone, rather than reapplying.
Can you receive both VA & Social Security benefits?

Yes, but they may affect each other. A person can receive both SSDI and full VA Service-Connected disability benefits! Because both SSI and VA pension programs are low-income programs, benefits are reduced if the person is receiving any other payments.

TIP

SSA has a special expedited application process for Post-9/11 Wounded Warriors. Disabled Service Members should apply for both Social Security and VA disability because one benefit may be awarded before the other and, in some instances, they can receive both. For more information visit socialsecurity.gov/people/veterans.

Temporary Assistance to Needy Families

The Illinois Department of Human Service runs TANF, which gives low-income families a monthly cash benefit while recipients are looking for employment. Apply at a local DHS office Family Community Resource Center at www.dhs.state.il.us/locatort or call (800) 843-6154.

TANF application process is complicated. Families should not be afraid to speak with a supervisor. Also, TANF is normally time limited so that no one over 18 can receive benefits for more than 60 months in their lifetime.

Who can get TANF?

- Families with a child under 19 (if child is 18, must be in school full time). In some cases, a child may be eligible for a child-only benefit if the parents are not eligible
- Pregnant women
- Requirements: recipients must work, do job training or other “self-sufficiency” activity to stay eligible
- Exceptions: parents with a child under 1 or a child with special needs, domestic violence victims, or ill or disabled adults may be exempt from the work requirements

Eligibility varies by state. See tanfprogram.com/tanf-eligibility for information for each state.

Disabled Children’s SSI

A Social Security program for children with disabilities under age 18. To be eligible, children must come from low-income, low-asset homes and have a disability. PIPP participants who make payments on time receive a monthly credit amounting to 1/12th of past due bills, up to $1,000 per year for gas and $1,000 for electric with an annual maximum benefit of $1,800. Income eligibility for LIHEAP (both DVP and PIPP) is 150% of federal poverty guidelines. Visit liheapillinois.com or call the Energy Assistance Hotline at (877) 411-9276.

Utility Shut-Off: By Illinois law, if a utility is medically necessary, a doctor can issue a Certificate of Illness where utility companies must delay a shut-off or restore services for up to 60 days, once every 12 or 24 months. Customer must enter into payment plan. Mandates reconnection of utility service within 14 days of a disconnection.

This will prevent a utility shut-off for 30 days. A physician can renew this protection for another 30 days by sending a second letter (with the same information) to the utility company.

Maintaining Community Employment

USERRA: A bill that gives you the right when you return from military service or training to keep your former job with the same benefits. Make sure that you inform your current employer in writing that you are going to deploy. This will at least provide you with the protection of USERRA should you want to return to your job. If you do not give your employer advance notice, then your employer may not need to give back your job. We also recommend talking about USERRA with ESGR.
